OCPD MOST WANTED SUSPECT LOCATED IN FLORIDA

The Ocean City Police Department was recently informed that a suspect on their "most wanted" list was arrested in Florida. Stavros "Steve" Dennis Kominos, 21, of West Ocean City, is wanted for multiple burglaries which occurred in March 2008.

On March 4, 2008, Ocean City Police Officers responded to the Isle of Wight Trailer Park, located at 2401 Coastal Highway, in reference to a burglary. Initially, OCPD Officers responded to only one burglarized trailer, however, a thorough search of the trailer park by the officers revealed an additional 14 trailers had been burglarized. Numerous items of property were removed from the trailers including TV's, DVD Players and a vacuum.

Evidence was gathered at the scene by the Ocean City Police Department's Forensic Services Unit. Investigators were able to link the evidence to Kominos and Adam Woodson Queen, 21, of Bethel Park, PA. Kominos fled to Florida the day after the burglaries and has been wanted by Ocean City Police since.

Kominos was arrested by the Oakland Park Police Department, just north of Fort Lauderdale, FL and is currently being held in the Broward County Jail awaiting extradition to Maryland. Kominos is facing 34 charges of burglary.
