For Immediate Release:

Update - Ocean City Police Need Your Help

The Ocean City Police needs the public's assistance in identifying a male suspect who violently raped a woman early morning hours of May 24, 2008. The attack and rape occurred around 2:30 AM in the area of 113 49th Street.

Ocean City Police Detectives are looking for a male in his mid 20's. The suspect has dark hair, 5'07 to 6'00 tall, average build, possibly having some facial hair. The suspect may possibly have bruises or scars on both hands. The suspect was wearing a light colored polo type shirt that had horizontal blue stripes. The suspect was wearing blue jeans and may have been wearing sneakers.

Detectives have recovered a surveillance video of a male believed to be the suspect fleeing the scene east on 49th Street. Investigators have also recovered two surveillance images of a male also believed to be the suspect. OCPD Detectives are hopeful that someone can identify the person seen in the video or the person in the still images. The still images were recovered from a surveillance camera on 49th Street earlier in the evening.

Anyone with any information about the attack and or the suspect's identity or whereabouts is asked to contact the Ocean City Police Department's Criminal Investigation Division at 410-723-6604, Detective 1st Class Shawn Jones at 410-723-6661 or call the OCPD front desk at 410-723-6610.
