DISAGREEMENT BETWEEN TWO MEN LEADS TO STABBING

On July 24, 2010 at approximately 2:10 a.m., Ocean City Police responded to 5401 Coastal Highway for a reported stabbing. Upon arrival, officers located one male victim, whose name is not being released at this time, lying in the parking lot.

An on scene investigation revealed that the victim was approached and assaulted by the suspect. According to witnesses, the suspect then stabbed the victim several times. In addition, officers discovered that the victim and the suspect had prior association involving each other, including a possible disagreement earlier in the week.

The suspect in the stabbing has been described as a tall Hispanic male in his mid-thirties. He was believed to have fled the 54th Street area on foot and is still at large. Detectives are actively pursuing leads and continuing to seek witnesses, including individuals who left the scene in a red Suburban.

The victim was taken to Peninsula Regional Medical Center and is currently being treated for his injuries. Ocean City Police are asking witnesses or anyone with information regarding the incident or suspect to call the Ocean City Police Department's Criminal Investigation Tip Line at 410.520.5136.
