OCEAN CITY POLICE PLAIN CLOTHES PATROLS CONTINUE TO SUPPRESS CRIME

On June 16, 2008, at approximately 02:00 A.M., OCPD plain clothes patrol officers were in the area of 3rd Street and Baltimore Avenue and observed a male urinating on a parked car. This same male was with a group of persons. Officers then observed the male walk over to a group of persons who were in a near-by hotel parking lot. The male then produced a handgun from his waistband and pointed it straight above his head and pulled the trigger. The gun did not go off however; police respond to the scene and detained the individual who was later identified as Adam Wayne Jackson, 19-years old, of Landenberg, Pennsylvania. Jackson was subsequently arrested for possession of the handgun.

During the investigation, Officers discovered that prior to police arrival in the area, Jackson had attempted to rob a person using the gun. Officers checked the serial number of the handgun which revealed the gun was stolen.

The subsequent investigation concluded that the recovered handgun was stolen during a residential burglary that occurred on June 11, 2009, in Londongrove Township, Pennsylvania, during that burglary eight guns were stolen, including the Glock 9mm pistol recovered from Jackson by the OCPD plain clothes officers. The OCPD contacted Pennsylvania State Police investigators regarding the recovered handgun.

OCPD investigators provided the Pennsylvania State Police with information regarding Jackson and his associates who were in Ocean City at the time of Jackson's arrest. This information enabled Pennsylvania investigators to develop additional suspects and make arrests related to the original burglary as well as other burglaries that had occurred in Londongrove Township area.

Jackson was charged with the following crimes:

- Attempted Armed Robbery
- Attempted Robbery
- Using a handgun in the commission of a crime of violence
- Wear and carry a handgun on and about his person
- Assault 2nd Degree
- Theft under $500

Jackson was seen by an Ocean City District Court Commissioner and was held on $250,000 Bond. Jackson was transferred to the Worcester County Jail.
