OCPD NARCS ARREST SUSPECTED DRUG DEALER

On November 5, 2009, at approximately 8 P.M., the Ocean City Police Narcotics unit with the assistance of OCPD patrol personnel made traffic stop of a vehicle after the driver of the car sold suspected crack cocaine to an undercover OCPD detective.

During the stop, the driver of the suspect vehicle was identified as Shanice Eriz Chandler; 24-years-old of Frankford, Delaware. Chandler and Jennings were taken into custody without incident. It should be noted, that there was a two year old child inside of the vehicle during the drug transaction.

Chandler has been charged with:

- Distribution of Controlled Dangerous Substance, to wit: Crack Cocaine (Felony)
- Possession of Controlled Dangerous Substance, to wit: Crack Cocaine (Misdemeanor)
- Possession of Controlled Dangerous Substance, to wit: Marijuana THC (Misdemeanor)

Shanice Eriz Chandler

A passenger inside of the vehicle during the drug transaction identified as Sheronda Renee Jennings; 38-years-old, of Frankford, Delaware was also arrested and charged with:

- Conspiracy to Distribute Controlled Dangerous Substance, to wit: Crack Cocaine (Felony)
- Possession of Controlled Dangerous Substance, to wit: Marijuana THC (Misdemeanor)

Sheronda Renee Jennings

A family member of Jennings did respond to the scene to take custody of Jennings 2-year-old child. OCPD Detectives will be following up with social services regarding the welfare of the child.

Both Chandler and Jennings were seen by an Ocean City District Court Commissioner; Chandler is being held on a $10,000 bond. Jennings is being held on a $5000 bond.
