OCPD SEEKING IDENTITY OF JEWELRY STORE BURGLARY SUSPECT

The Ocean City Police Department is seeking the assistance of the public to help identify a suspect involved in the Burglary of the "Avanti Jewelers" which occurred on October 12, 2009, at about 02:30 hours. This jewelry store is located inside the Princess Royal Hotel, 9100 Coastal Highway, Ocean City.

OCPD officers were able to recover a surveillance video which shows a suspect enter the jewelry shop and break into jewelry cases and steal several items.

The suspect is described as: light skinned black male, 6"0 tall, 200 to 220 pounds, has a mustache with short hair. The suspect appears to be in his mid 40's. At the time of the burglary the suspect is seen wearing a dark colored t-shirt, blue jeans and white sneakers. (See video provided)

Anyone having any information regarding this suspect or incident is asked to contact the OCPD Criminal Investigation Division at 410-723-6604.
