For Immediate Release:

SUSPECT SOUGHT BY OCPD

On August 18, 2010, Ocean City Police responded to 2700 Baltimore Avenue, in reference to a strong armed robbery. Officers met with the 62-year-old female victim who told police she had her purse on her shoulder when an unknown assailant grabbed her purse from behind. The victim and the suspect wrestled over the purse. The suspect pushed the victim to the ground and ran away with the purse. The suspect was last seen running west on 28th Street toward Coastal Highway. Police attempted a K9 track of the suspect, but were unable to locate the suspect or the stolen purse.

The victim did receive several non-life threatening injuries and was transported by OC paramedics to Atlantic General Hospital for treatment.

The suspect is described as follows:

- Black Male
- Stocky build
- 5'09" to 6'00"
- Wearing a white T-shirt and dark pants
- "Fuzzy" hair that came down past his ears

The stolen purse is described as:

- White purse with a shoulder strap. Zippers on both exterior sides and one zipper in the interior
