EASTERN SHORE LAW ENFORCEMENT TEAM UP TO GET MOTORISTS FROM THE BAY TO THE BEACH IN ONE PIECE

Summer is quickly approaching and law enforcement personnel from the Eastern Shore of Maryland are teaming up to assure that Route 50 travelers get From the Bay to the Beach in One Piece. The From the Bay to the Beach in One Piece campaign will begin on Friday, May 28, 2010 as visitors begin their travel to Ocean City for the holiday weekend.

The campaign will focus on key issues that jeopardize the safety of motorists, including aggressive driving, seatbelt and child safety, distracted driving, impaired driving and motorcycle safety. In addition, law enforcement officials will be monitoring speed to ensure that the road is safe for all travelers.

The From the Bay to the Beach in One Piece campaign is an initiative that joins law enforcement agencies from Ocean City Police, Maryland State Police, Worcester County, Easton Police, Cambridge Police, Department of Natural Resources, Queen Anne's Police, Talbot County Police and Maryland Transit Authority. For more questions about the From the Bay to the Beach in One Piece campaign, or the role of the Ocean City Police Department, please contact the OCPD Public Affairs Office at 410.520.5395.
