Each year the Ocean City Surf Club makes a generous donation by donating two brand new soft-top rescue boards to JBP and a check donation. The check was presented at the last Monday morning meeting. This donation is used to offset the cost of our very popular "Beach safety activity book" which gets distributed to 1'000's of children throughout the greater Ocean City area. Additionally, the OC Surf Club meets with the Jr. Beach Patrol children every Friday morning and some afternoons in the summer to explain all their organization does for the community and teaches them some life lessons both in and out of the ocean. They reinforce that the Jr Beach Patrol is a valuable program and that the things and skills they learn in Jr. BP will benefit them for the rest of their lives. They also let them know that surfers and the surfing community share with the OC Beach Patrol a responsibility to always help those in distress both in the ocean and on the beach.

OCBP Question-of-the-Week for The Worcester County Times

I went to the beach today and saw yellow stands. When I got closer, I noticed the flags said surfing beach. Is this something new?

This is not new. The Mayor and City Council passed Ordinance # 1975-9 in 1975 that established designated "Surfing areas". We have had rotating surfing beaches since 1983. Due to large beach crowds from Memorial Day through the end of September, surfing is only permitted in designated areas during the beach patrol's operating hours of 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Seven days a week there are two rotating surfing beaches. On weekdays there is also a third surfing beach set up in the inlet area. No activity other than surfing is allowed in the surf beach area which prohibits Body Boards and Paddle Boards. However, we still staff the area with Surf Rescue Technicians (Lifeguards) so that in the event that no one is surfing we can open that area of beach to normal swimming activities until someone wants to surf.

Surf beach areas are marked by smaller yellow stands and flags on the particular block designated, one at the north end of the block and the other at the south end. Starting in 1990 we began hiring specialized beach patrol staff called Surf Beach Facilitators (SBFs) who are assigned to work at the surfing beaches and wear green or yellow uniforms so that they are not confused with the Surf Rescue Technicians (Lifeguards). The SBFs make sure the operation of the surf beach runs smoothly. They make sure surfers stay within the designated area, while also educating the public and making sure they do not swim or wade in the surf area. The SBF begins their work day at 9:30 a.m., a half hour earlier than the rest of the patrol. During that time, they talk to beach patrons who are not planning to surf, making sure they understand how the surfing beach operates. To further facilitate the smooth operation of the surfing beaches the SBF will go to the next day's surfing beach (2 blocks south) to inform the beach patrons that the following day their beach will be the surfing beach. If there are no surfers and the beach is "OPEN" to swimming, the SBF's will assist the surrounding SRT's with ordinance enforcement, until one or more surfers arrive and the beach becomes an exclusive surfing area again.

The two rotating surf beaches move two blocks south each day. Based on the current rotation, a specific street block would not have the surfing beach on the same date for over 20 years. So, if your family stays on 10th Street the second week in July every year, and the surfing beach were to be on 10th street this year during that week, it would not happen again for the next 20 years. It will be on every beach a couple of times every season but during a different time of the season.

The third surfing beach operates Monday through Friday and is always in the same location starting at the south rock jetty at the end of Ocean City and extending 150 yards north. This area was picked because it is usually not crowded on weekdays. Furthermore, it is not safe to swim close to a rock jetty and often has a wave break that surfers enjoy.

The surf beaches are in effect between 10:00 – 5:30 (Guarding hours) from May 1 to September 30 from the Inlet to 27th Street, and from the Friday of Memorial Day weekend to September 30th for all other beaches in Ocean City.

If you need more recruiting cards, we have plenty! Please pick them up at HQ or ask for them to be relayed up the beach.

Meet the Lifeguard: SBF Emma Frantz

Surf Beach Facilitator (SBF) Emma Frantz joined the Beach Patrol this summer. She is a member of Crew 19 and sits the yellow stand throughout Ocean City depending on where the surfing beach is that day. In her free time, Emma likes running, weight training and concerts. In the off season she is a sophomore at the University of Maryland in College Park and a pool lifeguard. She is working towards a degree in mechanical engineering.

SBF Emma Frantz works alongside the Surf Rescue Technicians (lifeguards) of the Ocean City Beach Patrol. They are glad to answer any of your beach and water safety questions.

If you think you would like a position with the Patrol, ask any of our Surf Rescue Technicians or visit our website at JoinBeachPatrol.com. We will start testing for lifeguards for next summer this August. We pay ($18.44 - 2023 rate) while we train you in our Surf Rescue Training Academy where all certifications will be provided. Surf Beach Facilitator interviews (No physical Testing required) begin in August as well ($15.91 hr. – 2023 rate). It's too late for this summer but never too late to join our team. To learn more about this amazing opportunity ask any of our Surf Rescue Technicians (Lifeguards) who can help you train or visit JoinBeachPatrol.com for training tips.
